

Brookings 2015 Community Trends Report

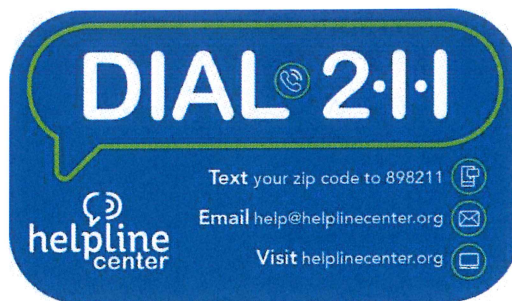

754 online searches specifically for Brookings area resources

562 total calls from the Brookings County

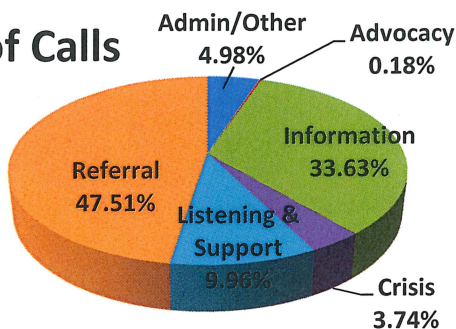

42 Suicide-Related Calls

Age Range: 11 to 95 years

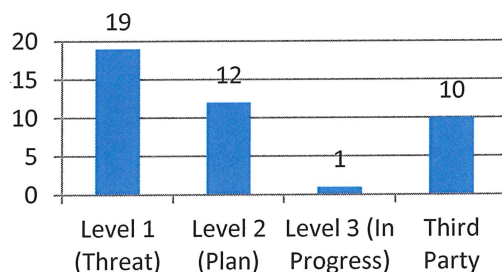

Females 75% Males 25%

Types of Calls

Types of Suicide Related Calls

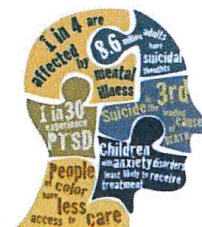

Basic Needs: 207

Programs that help individuals and families with basic need resources, such as food, housing, material goods, transportation and utilities.

Organizational, Community, International Services: 131

Programs that provide any of a broad spectrum of services that benefit entire communities, such as government services, disaster response and donations to non-profits.

Mental Health and Substance Abuse: 91

Programs that provide preventive, diagnostic and treatment services in a variety of community and hospital-based settings to help people regarding mental health and substance abuse issues.

Individual and Family Life: 82

Programs that promote the personal, social and spiritual development of people in the community, such as recreational programs, volunteer opportunities and assistance with disaster recovery.

Criminal Justice and Legal Services: 35

Programs that promote and preserve the conditions that enable the community and residents to live in a safe and peaceful environment through the enforcement of laws.

Healthcare: 35

Programs whose primary purpose is to help individuals and families achieve and maintain physical well-being.

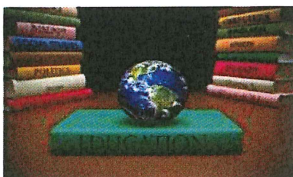

Environment, Public Health and Safety: 5

Programs that protect and conserve natural resources promote public health and implement measures for safety education.

Education: 5

Programs that provide opportunities for people to acquire the knowledge and skills to enable them to fully participate in the community.

Consumer Services: 19

Programs that provide for the education and protection of individuals who buy products and services.

Income Support and Employment: 22

Programs that help to meet the economic needs of the community by helping residents prepare for, find and sustain gainful employment; or assisting individuals in understanding eligibility for public assistance and support.